The 12th "JobReady by DYPA" event held in Corfu on Friday, 16 October
Free Career Development and Entrepreneurship Workshops

The Greek Public Employment Service (DYPA) organises the 12th "JobReady by DYPA" event at the premises of the Ionian Islands Region in Corfu on Friday, 16 October, from 10:30 till 18:30. (Samara 13, 491 00, Corfu).

The event includes free workshops for jobseekers, or persons aspiring to either improve their professional skills or become entrepreneurs.

The hands-on workshops will help participants to better prepare for their job search, to enhance their soft skills and to gain insights on the current employers' requirements from candidates.

The event will feature guest HR professionals who are going to discuss the actual staff selection process as well the criteria assessed during the recruitment process.

The event will also feature entrepreneurs who will discuss how they have benefited from DYPA's Entrepreneurial Counselling and Entrepreneurship support programmes in developing their own business.

Participants will have the opportunity to:

- Improve their CV both in context and layout,
- Learn how to prepare for a job interview effectively
- Identify and highlight their professional and personal skills,
- Learn how to develop a business idea/ plan,
- Familiarise with good practices shared by experienced entrepreneurs
- Discover DYPA's new digital apps.

Furthermore, in the specially designed CV Corner and Business Corner expert counsellors will offer jobseekers information and tailored guidance on preparing and presenting their CVs, as well as on developing business ideas.

Participation is free of charge. Interested persons can register at: https://dypa.evendia.gr/events/jobready-kerkyra-2026
