Jobseekers will have the opportunity to:

- Communicate directly, without a prior appointment, with businesses representatives looking for staff,
- Explore career development opportunities in different areas that interest them,
- Learn about the range of the available jobs and the most sought-after specialties, and
- Meet with expert DYPA counsellors and executives of the Service Unit for Medium-sized and Large Enterprises (MEMME) to receive information on DYPA's actions and services.

Businesses looking for staff can:

- Meet with a large number of candidates in order to cover their vacancies,
- Conduct interviews and to collect the CVs of candidates and
- Present the career development opportunities each company has to offer to a significant number of candidates.

The list of participating businesses and the available vacancies is posted on the DYPA website:
