DYPA starts the prepayment of benefits, allowances and Easter bonuses on 2 April

On Thursday, April 2, DYPA starts the prepayment for the following: Unemployment Benefit, Work Benefit, Benefit for the Long Term Unemployed and Unemployment Allowance to self-employed persons and liberal professionals. Furthermore, DYPA will also prepay beneficiaries of the following: Unemployment Benefit, Special maternity Protection Allowance, Parental benefit and Work benefit.

The Greek Public Employment Service (DYPA) will credit benefits and Easter bonuses directly to the beneficiaries' bank accounts (linked with the prepaid cards).

Beneficiaries are not required to take no action or visit their local Employment Promotion Centres (KPA2 offices).

Unemployed persons required to declare their presence between 2 April and 19 April 2026, are reminded that the prepayment will follow their declaration of presence, conducted exclusively online at:
