JobReady by DYPA: Thessaloniki, November 14

A "JobReady by DYPA" event is going to be held on Thursday, November 14, 2024, 10:00-18:00, at the Electra Palace Thessaloniki hotel (9 Aristotelous St, 546 24, Thessaloniki).

At DYPA's "JobReady" events, jobseekers and those planning to start their own business have the opportunity to participate in experiential workshops led by DYPA's expert staff. These workshops are designed to enhance the participants' job-related and soft skills, and prepare them for their integration into the labour market.

The event in Thessaloniki will feature guest speakers and HR professionals from various companies, as well as representatives of businesses that have successfully been launched with DYPA's support. They will share their experiences, discuss the importance of entrepreneurship counselling and explain how this can be best utilised.

Participation is free for all. Please register at:

Participants will have the opportunity to:

- Learn CV enhancement techniques
- Develop skills for effective job interviews
- Take part in job interview simulation workshops
- Learn from HR professionals how they evaluate candidates' CVs and presence in job interviews
- Understand the value of social networking in job searching
- Learn how to develop a business idea
- Listen to success stories from new entrepreneurs
- Get familiar with the Business Model Canvas tool
- Learn how to create their own business plan.
