Career Day in Düsseldorf on December 14th, 2024

More than 40 leading companies with over 1,000 jobs at DYPA's "Career Day" in Düsseldorf on December 14th

The Greek Public Employment Service (DYPA) and the Ministry of Labour and Social Security, together with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, are jointly organising the first "Career Day" event abroad, to be held in Düsseldorf, Germany, on Saturday, December 14th, 2024, 10:00-18:00, at the Kö59 Hotel (Königsallee 59, 40215).

This unique event is going to bring together Greeks working in Germany who seek quality jobs and the opportunity to return to Greece and contribute to its development, as well as foreign professionals interested in pursuing new career prospects in Greece.

With the participation of more than 40 leading companies operating across a wide range of sectors in Greece, the event will promote over 1,000 jobs in cutting-edge sectors, such as engineering, economics, healthcare, IT, data analysis, sales, and other high-demand sectors.

After 34 "Career Days" in 15 Greek cities, bringing together 1,650 businesses and 60,000 jobseekers, this new "Career Day" event travels abroad as part of the MoU signed by DYPA and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs last September. DYPA's "Career Day" in Düsseldorf is aimed at reaching out to specialised professionals who live abroad and wish to return to Greece with a view to utilising their knowledge and expertise in a country that is dynamically changing and developing.

Networking with top employers and discovering new career opportunities

Participants will have the chance to meet representatives of businesses looking for staff, without arranging a prior appointment.

Representatives of the participating businesses will be at the event to answer the questions of interested participants and help them find the most suitable career opportunities, namely ones corresponding to their skills, knowledge and qualifications.
